Temporary Inactive Status. If the hospice is closing for a period of less than 12 months, and plans to reopen under the same ownership, governing body, and name, the hospice may request to have the license placed on temporary inactive status.

(a) When placed on temporary inactive status, the license shall be returned to the Department within 10 days of closure and the hospice shall not operate until the license has been reactivated.

(b) The hospice shall request in writing that the permit be reactivated at least 30 days prior to the desired date of reopening. Prior to reactivation of the license, the hospice shall be subject to inspection by the Department. If the license is not reactivated within 12 months, the license shall be considered abandoned.

Interpretive Guideline

The hospice should not wait until the closing has been effectuated to request temporary inactive status. The request should be made as soon as the facility anticipates closing and should include the plans for the orderly transfer of patients.

The 12-month period begins at the official date of closure. This rule does not restrict the applicant from applying for a new license after the 12-month period has expired.

- (c) The governing body and central administration shall be able to adequately manage all locations and ensure the quality of care at all locations;
- (d) Supervision and oversight at additional locations is sufficient to ensure that hospice care and services meet the needs of patients and the patients ' family units;
- (e) The medical director assumes responsibility for the medical component of the hospice ' s patient care at all locations;
- (f) Additional locations provide the same full range of services and the same level and quality of care that is provided by the primary location;
- (g) Each patient is assigned to a specific hospice care team responsible for ongoing assessment, planning, monitoring, coordination, and provision of care;

- (i) All locations maintain the same Medicare provider number, as applicable.

The hospice shall report to the Department any pending involuntary discharge of a hospice patient initiated by the hospice. The report shall be made at the time of notification to the patient of the pending discharge.

See Rule 290-9-43-.14(4)(a), Admission, Transfers, and Discharges.

The hospice may not discharge patients solely because their care has become costly or inconvenient. In most situations, discharge from a hospice will occur as a result of one of the following:

1. The patient decides to revoke the election to receive hospice services;
2. The patient moves away from the geographic area that the hospice defines in its policies as its service area;
3. The patient requests a transfer to another hospice;
4. The patient 's condition improves and the patient is no longer considered terminally ill; or
5. The patient dies as a result of the terminal illness or underlying condition.

Those situations would not require report. It is those situations where the hospice initiates a discharge without any of the above conditions present which would require a report. The reasons for the discharge should be disclosed in the report.

One exception to the hospice having to honor the advance directive is if the patient ' s directive specifies " do not resuscitate " (DNR) and the hospice physician or the hospice facility maintains a conscientious objection to executing the DNR order. In such cases, the hospice should be clear about this policy with each patient and their families when the patient is considering admission, so that the patient may choose another hospice that would effectuate the DNR order if the patient so desired. The Centers for Disease Control (CDC) has developed infection control guidelines for many of these topics. They can be accessed through the CDC website at www.cdc.org

(9) Methods for handling and transport of medical waste should comply with the Bloodborne Pathogens Rule issued by the Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) and applicable state environmental agency regulations.

(16) O.C.G.A. 31-12-2 requires that healthcare providers notify the Georgia Division of Public Health of outbreaks or detection of certain communicable diseases, as specified by the Department. The list of diseases or conditions requiring notification are available from the Georgia Notifiable Disease Unit, Division of Public Health (404) 657-2588 (or from the county health department). Information about notifiable diseases and the notification process may also be accessed through their website at <http://health.state.ga.us>

Regulation Definition

If, during the home care visit, there are observed or communicated significant changes in the patient ' s condition or needs, or if the hospice employee or volunteer observes that the patient ' s primary caregiver cannot provide the continuing support and care the patient requires, such findings shall be communicated to the patient ' s hospice care team in a sufficiently timely manner to ensure that the patient ' s care and safety needs are addressed.

Interpretive Guideline

It is imperative that the hospice staff and volunteers providing patient care be sensitive to the changing needs of the patient or changes in the caregiver ' s ability to provide care. Failure to report such changes and to address them promptly could be considered neglect on the part of the provider.

ST - Z1605 - HOME CARE

Rule 290-9-43-.16(4)

Regulation Definition

When hospice services are provided to a patient who is a resident of a licensed nursing home, licensed intermediate care home, or licensed personal care home, there shall be written communication evidencing agreement that specifies that the hospice takes full responsibility for professional management of the patient ' s hospice care and that the licensed nursing home, licensed intermediate care home, or licensed personal care home takes responsibility for the other services the patient needs or receives that the licensed facility is authorized to provide.

Regulation Definition

The written communication shall clearly specify the patient-care activities and responsibilities that will be performed by the hospice employees and volunteers and those patient care tasks that will be performed by employees of the facility where the hospice patient resides. Only hospice employees and volunteers shall provide those services for which they are assigned responsibility in the hospice 's plan of care for the patient.

Interpretive Guideline

Staff of facilities where hospice patients reside can be included in the hospice plans of care only to the extent that the hospice would routinely utilize the services of a patient ' s primary caregiver if the services were provided in the patient ' s home.

ST - Z1607 - HOME CARE

Title HOME CARE

Rule 290-9-43-.16(4)(b)

Type Rule

Regulation Definition

The written communication shall specify an individual from the hospice and an individual from the facility where the patient resides who shall be responsible for communication between services providers regarding each patient ' s treatment and condition and for addressing any care issues. Such communication shall be ongoing throughout the period of hospice service provision and shall be documented in the patient ' s hospice medical record.

Interpretive Guideline

This rule requires that it be clear in the arrangement who are the points of contact between the providers to assure that care issues are addressed. Although these individuals may be identified by title, each patient ' s care plan should reflect when/how often and with whom the ongoing communication takes place. For example: At each scheduled visit by the hospice nurse, there will be documented communication between the hospice nurse and the charge nurse at the nursing home to discuss any changes in the patient ' s condition or care.

Interpretive Guideline

Hospice physicians can address the basic medical needs of the patients through the plan of care, through a referral to another physician, or through other means that are not in conflict with their licenses, hospice policies, or these rules and regulations. The rule is not intended to imply that the hospice treat or pay for medical needs of the patient which are not related to the patient ' s terminal illness.
